

REF 1033 Charming Mid-Terraced Countryside Home 1033

€185,000

Located just 1 km from the village's amenities, this delightful mid-terraced house offers a peaceful rural retreat while remaining conveniently close to local shops and services. The property features a large plot of land in front of the house, perfect for parking, gardening, or keeping animals.

The main house is set on one level and boasts two private courtyards one with a swimming pool, offering a tranquil space to relax. A stairway leads up to a roof terrace located above the guest bedroom and ensuite shower room which is totally independent to the main house, providing a perfect spot to enjoy the beautiful distant mountain views.

This well-maintained property has been primarily used as a holiday home and comes partly furnished, ready for its new owner. Whether you're looking for a peaceful countryside escape or a permanent residence, this home is full of potential.
