

REF 859 A Project of 2 Detached Houses in a Country Paradise 859

€135,000 €155,000

If you are looking for a project in paradise this is the property for you. Surrounded by pure nature these dwellings offer various ideas to create what you are looking for in a property. All buildings have their roof intact and are all structurally sound. There is mains electricity and the water is delivered into a well which also collects rain water. The garden has many varieties of mature and young trees, including Olive, Fig and citrus. There is a well-used dirt track from the main road to the property with borders of lavender, rosemary and thyme. Although very private there are neighbours near by. Within a 15min drive you find yourself at the local beaches, shops, bars and restaurants. Contact us now for more information.
