REF 920 Country Semi-Detached Bungalow

This quaint country bungalow, has a south facing front terrace which runs along the front of the property and a private high walled back garden. There are two garden gates, one which leads to a public footpath and the other to a green zone where you can park your car. The garden has citrus mature trees and small plants, it also houses a garden shed and a brick built BBQ. The back door of the house takes you into the modernised kitchen with a new floor and units, off from the kitchen is a toilet come utility room. A slight ramp takes you into a bright sunny living room, which has a log/pellet burner. The family bathroom with a large walk-in shower has also been recently renovated. There is a separate dining room, a hallway and three double bedrooms. If you are looking to live in a small Spanish village, this is the property for you.
