

REF 935 Old Country House 935

€115,000 ~~€150,000~~

This old country house would be an interesting project for someone who loves the peace and tranquility of the countryside. The main house has two entrance doors one into the super large kitchen/dining room and one leading into the spacious living room, which used to be two bedrooms and a hallway. There is a bathroom and a bedroom. Adjoining the house with its own entrance is another spare room. Independent of the house is a 2 bedrooomed wooden cabin. There is some outbuildings currently being used for storage. The land is terraced and has an entrance gate. The property has mains water and electricity. There are distant seaviews from the property and it is only an 8 min drive into the centre of Puerto de Mazarron.
